INDIANAPOLIS INFORMATION SERVICES AND LITERATURE DEPOT

Date: January 2021
To: Individuals and Groups who support IIS and/or the Literature Depot
From: Indianapolis Information Services and the Literature Depot

The Indianapolis Literature Depot is a place to locally purchase Al-Anon Conference Approved Literature, located downstairs at the Carvel Club. Financial Transactions at the Literature Depot revolve around buying and selling Conference Approved Literature.

If you wish to use a check to purchase literature, please make the check payable to the Indianapolis Literature Depot.

Indianapolis Information Services (IIS) uses our 7th Tradition contributions to cover costs which support our 12th Step and our 5th Tradition locally. These include some of the costs of supporting the Literature Depot (beyond the purchase of literature), such as payroll, phone service and insurance. We rely on support of the groups to meet these on-going expenses. In past years some district events have served as fund-raisers for IIS (such as the Danville Mini-Conference or the District 9 Anniversary Dinner). For 2020 and 2021, it has not been feasible to host such large in-person gatherings as fund-raisers for IIS. Without such fund-raisers, we are relying on group contributions more than ever.

If you wish to support Indianapolis Information Services (IIS), please make the check payable to Indianapolis Information Services or IIS. This includes 7th Tradition contributions from groups, as well as contributions from individual members.

Contributions should be sent to: Indianapolis Information Services
4627 Carvel Ave. Indianapolis, IN 46205

Please include your group name and/or service number, or indicate if it is an individual contribution.
